MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Boy Scouts of America is to prepare young people to make ethical and moral choices over their lifetimes by instilling in them the values of the Scout Oath and Scout Law.

THE SCOUT OATH (PROMISE)

On my honor I will do my best to do my duty to God and my country, and to obey the Scout Law; to help other people at all times; to keep myself physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight.

THE SCOUT LAW

A Scout is trustworthy, loyal, helpful, friendly, courteous, kind, obedient, cheerful, thrifty, brave, clean and reverent.

HISTORY

The first charter application on file in the Scout Office is dated August 1918, and covers a report of activity during the year 1917. The Council was composed of El Paso County only and there were 8 troops registered at that time. Mr. Glenn O. Everyman was the first Scout Executive. He served as Scout Executive until January 1923. When he left the Council included Dona Ana County, El Paso County and two Mormon Colonies in Mexico - Colonia Juarez and Colonia Dublan. At the close of 1922 there were 35 troops of 673 scouts in the Council; of these there were 31 troops in the City of El Paso with 523 Scouts.

FACTS, FIGURES & FUNDING

The Yucca Council Proudly serves El Paso, Hudspeth, Dona Ana, Otero, Sierra, Grant and Luna counties in West Texas and Southern New Mexico. The Yucca Council was recently ranked number one for the largest membership increase in the nation. With an army of volunteers supported by its professional staff, the Yucca Council served 9,443 people, which included 7,040 youth and 2,403 adults, in 265 youth programs throughout its seven counties in 2011, a 26.1% increase in youth. Through Friends of Scouting, Popcorn Sales, Golf Tournament, and Good Scout Events, the council has raised over $797,606 throughout 2011 with a budget of $797,356 in 2011 to support Scouting's growth.

OUR OUTDOOR CLASSROOM

- Camp Wehinahpay (Sacramento, NM) is 320 acres of outdoor adventure for all ages. The camp is known for its beautiful wooded campsites, cool mountain weather, low humidity, lack of mosquitoes, good wholesome food, a fantastic camp staff, wildlife, and an exciting program of camp activities.
- Camp Dale Resler (Cloudcroft, NM) The scenic 99-acre camp is ideal for camping, hiking, advancement, and fun. This camp offers a combination of high mountain camping and a quality scout program, which will provide a camping experience you and the Scouts will remember for the rest of your lives.

Programs of the Yucca Council

Cub Scouting

A family- and home-centered program for boys in the first through fifth grade (or 7, 8, 9, and 10 years old). Cub Scouting's emphasis is on a quality program at the local level, where the most boys and families are involved. Fourth- and fifth-grade (or 10-year-old) boys are called Webelos (WE'll BELOyal Scouts) and participate in more advanced activities that begin to prepare them to become Boy Scouts.

Boy Scouting

A year-round program for boys age 11 – 17 that provides fun outdoor activities, peer group leadership opportunities, and a personal exploration of career, hobby and special interests. The program is designed to achieve the Boy Scouts of America's objectives of strengthening character, personal fitness and good citizenship.

Varsity Scouting

An active, exciting program for young men (ages 14 to 17) built around five program fields of emphasis: advancement, high adventure, personal development, service, and special programs and events. A youth member, called a program manager, is responsible for each of the five fields of emphasis and works with an adult member, called a program adviser, from the team committee to coordinate each phase of the program.

Venturing

A program for young men and women (ages 14 to 20) that includes challenging high-adventure activities, sports, and hobbies for teenagers that teach them leadership skills, provide opportunities to teach others, and give them an opportunity to learn and grow in a supporting, caring, and fun environment.

ScoutReach

The ScoutReach Division gives special leadership and emphasis to urban and rural Scouting programs. ScoutReach is the Boy Scouts of America's commitment to making sure that all young people have an opportunity to join Scouting, regardless of their circumstances, neighborhood, or ethnic background.

Learning for Life

Learning for Life offers seven school-based programs that focus on character development and career education to help youth develop social and life skills, assists them with character and career development, and fosters in them positive personal values to prepare them to make ethical decisions that will enable them achieve their full potential. Exploring is Learning for Life's career education program for young men and women who are 11 through 20 years old. Its purpose is to provide experiences to help young people mature and to prepare them to become responsible and caring adults. Explorers are ready to investigate the meaning of interdependence in their personal relationships and communities. For more information: www.learningforlife.com.

Exploring

National Eagle Scout Association (NESA)

A fellowship of men who have achieved the Eagle Scout rank and who wish to employ their efforts and influence toward forming the kind of young men America needs for leadership. The objective of NESA is to serve Eagle Scouts and, through them, the entire movement of Scouting. For more information: www.nesa.org.
